Our Lady of Perpetual Help, the bulletin

For the weekend of November 22, 2026. Catholic Parish, Archdiocese of Chicago.

Mass this week

Weekend: Saturday 5:00 pm. Sunday 7:30 am. Sunday 9:00 am. Sunday 9:30 am, McDonnell Hall (Family Mass). Sunday 10:30 am. Sunday 12:00 pm. Sunday 5:00 pm.

Weekdays: Monday to Friday 6:30 am. Monday to Saturday 8:30 am. Holy days: 8:30 am.

Confession: Saturday 4:00 pm to 4:45 pm. Adoration: Friday 9:00 am to 4:00 pm, Eucharistic Adoration and Benediction. Rosary: Monday to Saturday, after the 8:30 am Mass.

Both worship spaces are wheelchair accessible through an outside ramp and an elevator.

Assistive Listening Devices are available from the Greeters and should be returned after Mass.

Mass times as the parish publishes them, read on October 18, 2026.

Fall Festival on the Grove Street lawn

Food, music and games on the lawn this Saturday from 11:00 am to 4:00 pm. Free to come, and a good first visit for a family that has never been inside. The Fall Festival runs on the Grove Street lawn from 11:00 am to 4:00 pm this Saturday. There is food, there is music, and there are games for children. Nothing is ticketed and nothing is expected of you. If you have driven past the church and wondered about it, this is the easiest way in. You can walk the grounds, meet a few people, and leave whenever you like. No one will ask you to sign anything. If you would rather ...

Read more: See the parish calendar.

olphglenview.org/events/?src=bulletin-2026-w47

Page owner: Parish Life Coordinator. Sample item written for the demo.

Family Mass and pancake breakfast this Sunday

The 9:30 am Family Mass in McDonnell Hall this Sunday, then breakfast in the same room. Children are expected to be children. The Family Mass is at 9:30 am in McDonnell Hall, which is the one Sunday Mass that is not in the church. It is shorter, the music is simpler, and nobody minds noise. Breakfast follows in the same room. There is no charge and no sign-up. Come late if you need to and leave early if you need to. If this is your first time on the grounds, park in the Grove Street lot and come in through the hall doors. A greeter stands inside them.

Read more: The 9:30 Family Mass.

olphglenview.org/families/family-mass/?src=bulletin-2026-w47

Page owner: Parish Life Coordinator. Sample item written for the demo.

Ministry fair after every Mass this Sunday

Tables in McDonnell Hall after every Mass this Sunday. One stop to see where a family could take a next step, from serving at Mass to helping people in need. After every Mass this Sunday, the ministries set up tables in McDonnell Hall. Walk through, pick up a card, talk to someone who already does the thing you are curious about. If Sunday does not work, the ministry finder on this site is the same fair without the coffee. Every ministry takes a join request and routes it to its leader.

Read more: Find a ministry now.

olphglenview.org/get-involved/?src=bulletin-2026-w47

Page owner: Parish Engagement Coordinator. Sample item written for the demo.

Fall Festival on the Grove Street lawn

Food, music and games on the lawn this Saturday from 11:00 am to 4:00 pm. Free to come, and a good first visit for a family that has never been inside. The Fall Festival runs on the Grove Street lawn from 11:00 am to 4:00 pm this Saturday. There is food, there is music, and there are games for children. Nothing is ticketed and nothing is expected of you. If you have driven past the church and wondered about it, this is the easiest way in. You can walk the grounds, meet a few people, and leave whenever you like. No one will ask you to sign anything. If you would rather ...

Read more: See the parish calendar.

olphglenview.org/events/?src=bulletin-2026-w47

Page owner: Parish Life Coordinator. Sample item written for the demo. Published from the content desk.

Blessing of the Animals on the lawn

Bring the dog, the cat, the hamster or a photograph. It is this Sunday at 1:00 pm on the Grove Street lawn, about twenty minutes, outdoors and easy to leave. The Blessing of the Animals happens on the Grove Street lawn this Sunday at 1:00 pm, in the spirit of Saint Francis of Assisi. Bring your animal on a leash or in a carrier. If your animal would rather stay home, a photograph is blessed just as gladly. The whole thing takes about twenty minutes and nobody has to stay afterward. It is outdoors, it is short, and no one will ask you whether you are registered. If you have been meaning ...

Read more: See the parish calendar.

olphglenview.org/events/?src=bulletin-2026-w47

Page owner: Parish Life Coordinator. Sample item written for the demo. Published from the content desk.

Choose what the parish sends you

Pick email, text or both, and the topics you care about: parish news, schedule changes, the Family Mass, school families, religious education and more. Every text ends with a way to stop. The parish writes each announcement once and sends it to the channels you chose. Pick the topics that fit your family and the way you prefer to hear from us. You can change your topics any time from My OLPH. Every text message ends with a way to stop.

Read more: Connect by email or text.

olphglenview.org/connect/?src=bulletin-2026-w47

Page owner: Director of Communications. Sample item written for the demo.

Sharing Ministry food collection this Saturday

Drop off at the Grove Street doors this Saturday from 9:00 am to noon. The list of what the pantry needs this month is posted at the entrance. Drivers are welcome. Bring non-perishable food and the items on the posted list to the Grove Street doors this Saturday morning. Volunteers sort on the spot and the truck leaves for the pantry at noon. If you can drive or lift, stand near the truck and someone will hand you a box. If your own family is short this month, say so quietly at the door.

Read more: The Sharing Ministry.

olphglenview.org/get-involved/sharing-ministry/?src=bulletin-2026-w47

Page owner: Human Concerns Coordinator. Sample item written for the demo.

Ministry of Care training: bring Communion to those who cannot come

A training session for anyone who would bring Communion to a family that cannot get to church. Register so the room and the materials are ready. Ministers of Care bring the Eucharist and company to parishioners who are homebound, in the hospital or in care. The training covers the rite, the practicalities and the listening. Register through the event page so the room and the materials are ready. Confirmed adults who practice the faith are welcome.

Read more: Register for the training.

olphglenview.org/events/5016/?src=bulletin-2026-w47

Page owner: Associate Pastor. Sample item written for the demo.

Becoming Catholic: the group is meeting, and you can still join

The Order of Christian Initiation of Adults met for the first time this year on October 7, as the parish published. The group keeps meeting on Wednesday evenings, and an adult can join at any point in the autumn. The Order of Christian Initiation of Adults, usually shortened to OCIA, is the path for an adult who wants to be baptized, to be received into the Catholic Church, or to finish the sacraments they started years ago. The first class of this year was Wednesday, October 7, as the parish published. Coming once commits you to nothing. People arrive at every stage, including people who are only curious ...

Read more: Ask about becoming Catholic.

olphglenview.org/becoming-catholic/?src=bulletin-2026-w47

Page owner: Associate Pastor. Sample item written for the demo.

Online giving runs on Pushpay

The parish states: "New Pushpay giving software is now LIVE at OLPH." Give once or set up a recurring gift, and if you had a recurring gift on GiveCentral, the parish asks you to cancel it there. The parish states that its new Pushpay giving software is live. Give once or set up a recurring gift from the Give page. You choose the fund, the amount and the day, and you can change or stop it yourself. Donors with a recurring gift on GiveCentral are asked to cancel it there, as the parish has published, so a gift is not taken twice.

Read more: Give.

olphglenview.org/give/?src=bulletin-2026-w47

Page owner: Director of Finance & Operations.

Giving

The parish states: "New Pushpay giving software is now LIVE at OLPH." Give once or set up a recurring gift from the Give page. Donors with a recurring gift on GiveCentral are asked to cancel it there.